Cccccccc Numb. 5019

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, November 20. 1717.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Nov. 26.

Bruſſels, November 22.

THE Grand Council of this City aſſembled the 20th, to deliberate upon the Continuation of the Impoſt upon the five Species, and other Duties; but after many Debates, it was reſolv'd, that this Affair ſhould remain in Suſpence, and that in the mean time, it ſhou'd be communicated to the other principal Cities of the Province; which retards the raiſing of the Subſidy granted to the Emperour. The Count de Hompeſch, Governour of Namur, arrived here Yeſterday, and after having made a Viſit to the Marquis de Prié, he departed for the Hague. They talk daily that Prince Eugene will ſoon come into this Country. On Friday laſt a triple Salvo of the Artillery of this City was made, on Occaſion of the Feſtival of the Name of the Empreſs Regent, and in the Evening there was a Ball.

Hague, Nov. 23. 'The Lords the States General have made an Anſwer to the Propoſitions made, both by Word of Mouth, and by Writing, by the Miniſter of Spain here, with reſpect to the Enterprize of his Maſter againſt the Iſland of Sardignia; containing in Subſtance, That they are very much oblig'd to his Catholick Majeſty, for the Communication made to them of the Reaſons that have engag'd him to make that Expedition: That they cannot but be pleas'd with the Aſſurance his Majeſty has been pleas'd to give them on that Occaſion, namely, That after that Enterprize, he would [illegible] all others; to the End that Time and Opportunity may be given to the Potentates of Europe, to take Meaſures, and find out Expedients, for preſerving the Repoſe of Italy, and therein of all Europe: That beſides, their High Mightineſſes thank his Majeſty, for the obliging Expreſſions towards them, contained in his Letter, eſpecially that he is pleaſed to remit his Pretenſions upon them: That their High Mightineſſes look upon this as a Proof of his good Inclination, Friendſhip, and Confidence towards them; And that they ſhall always uſe their Endeavours to anſwer it, by Proofs of their Eſteem and Amity for his Royal Perſon: That their High Mightineſſes knowing, and having always in Remembrance, the exceſſive Charges and Blood that the laſt War coſt, and alſo the Pains made uſe of to procure an End of it, deſire nothing ſo much as to prevent a new War, and to avoid all Occaſions that may be given for it. That they will not pretend to enter into the Detail of the Reaſons that may have engag'd his Majeſty to make this Expedition againſt Sardignia, but they cannot forbear expreſſing the Grief they have for it, and what they muſt ſtill have for the unhappy Conſequences that Expedition may have. That nevertheleſs they hope, that the Reſolution his Majeſty has taken, not to extend his Enterprizes farther than Sardignia, will have a good Effect, ſo that thoſe who are intereſted in the Repoſe of Europe, may have Time and Opportunity to labour in an Amicable Accommodation of the Differences ariſen: That their High Mightineſſes are inclin'd to labour in that good Work, as much as they are able. That they have given Intimation of the ſaid Propoſition to his Imperial Majeſty, as being the Party chiefly intereſted therein: That the like Notice has been given to the Kings of France and Great-Britain, with whom their High Mightineſſes have the good Fortune to be Allies, and whom it concerns to have the Repoſe and Tranquility of Europe preſerv'd: That hitherto his Imperial Majeſty has not explain'd himſelf upon this important Subject, neither have France or England, whoſe Thoughts their High Mightineſſes being as yet ignorant of, He [the Marquis Beretti Landi] may judge that they are not yet able to explain themſelves upon this Affair: That in the mean time they hope, and aſſure themſelves, that as his Catholick Majeſty has teſtified, that he was perſwaded of their good Intentions for the Preſervation of the Publick Tranquility, he will alſo perſwade himſelf, of their Good Will to contribute all they can, that the Enterprize now committed, ſhall not occaſion unhappy Conſequences, but that the Differences ariſen on that Account, may rather be terminated by an amicable Accommodation: And the ſaid States-General have an Idea, that his ſaid Majeſty will on his Part, contribute all the requiſite Facility.

'Their High Mightineſſes having, by their Miniſter at the Court of Vienna, employ'd their good Offices, for the Cantons of Zurich and Berne, with Relation to their Difference with the Abbot of St. Gall, as alſo for the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel, in Relation to Rhynfelt; the ſaid Miniſter of the States ſends Word to his Principals, (dated the 3d Inſtant) that both the one and the other of theſe Affairs are ſtill under Hand: And that the Abſence of the Vice-Chancellour of the Empire, who is not expected back till the End of this Month, delays the effectual Execution of the Orders concerning the Tolls of Hamburgh, and the Caſtle of Bentham. The States having intereſted themſelves in Favour of the Count of Bentham, towards the Biſhop of Munſter, for his withdrawing the Garriſon that he has in the Caſtle of Bentham, the Biſhop has anſwer'd, that that Caſtle being kept for the Security of the Empire in general, and that of the Circle of Weſtphalia in particular, as well as the Good of the Family of the Counts of Bentham, it was by expreſs Order of the Emperour, that the Biſhops of Munſter, in their Quality of Directors of that Circle, ſhould be charg'd with the Guard of it; and that by Conſequence, he as Biſhop of Munſter, cannot withdraw his Troops from the Caſtle of Bentham, without a ſpecial Command of his Imperial Majeſty.

'Their High Mightineſſes have been advertis'd by their Envoy at the Court of Vienna, that having on the 2d Inſtant, talk'd with one of the principal Imperial Miniſters, upon the Execution of the Barrier-Treaty, he had in general given Aſſurances that his Imperial Majeſty will endeavour by all Means to facilitate it, and to find out all poſſible Ways for quieting the reſt of the Differences which perplex that Affair.

'The Council of State have again repreſented to the States General, that there are ſo few Men at Work upon the exterior Works of Bonn that it cannot be expected thoſe Works will be demoliſh'd in the Time agreed upon; while at the ſame time, the Demolition of Huy, and the Citadel of Liege, goes on apace: That ſince the Inſtances made upon the Subject of the Demolition of Bonn, Lieut. Colonel Coetlet has reported to the Council (dated the 4th) that the Count de St. Maurice had newly declar'd, on the Part of his Electoral Highneſs, to the Chapter of Cologne, that he would have no Part in the ill Conſequences, which the Delay of that Demolition may bring; his Electoral Highneſs judging it impoſſible that the Whole ſhould be demoliſh'd in the time fix'd for it, unleſs more Men are ſet to Work upon it. 'Tis very true, that the Council in this Repreſentation, remark the good Inclination of his Electoral Highneſs, to ſatisfie the Convention made; but at the ſame time they alledge, that the States is not ſerv'd thereby, and

'that

‘ that this Delay in the Demolition of Bonn, and
‘ the Expedition uſed in that of Huy and Liege,
‘ deſerves Reflection. Wherefore Deputies are ‘ order'd to make Inſtances to the Reſident of his ‘ ſaid Electoral Highneſs, for the Advancement of
‘ the Demolition of Bonn.

A highly eſteem'd Stiptic to faſten looſe Teeth, be they Rotten or Sound, in Old or Young, which fixes them in the Alveolus, and in their Sockets, like Nails in a Board, cauſing alſo the looſe and flaccid Gums to grow faſt to the Teeth, whereby both are preſerv'd continually to Admiration. Numbers of People have experienced it, and praiſed it to the Skies, after a vain Tryal of 40 other Things. In a Word, if it anſwer not Expectation, or if any Thing on Earth can excell it, your Money ſhall be return'd. Price 1 s. the Bottle. Sold by Mrs. Hawes, Perfumer, in the Narrow Weſt-Gate, or Entrance into the Weſt-Walk of the Royal-Exchange, and at the 7 Stars Toyſhop under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleetſtreet.

The pleaſant Odoriferous Tincture for the Breath, Teeth and Gums, a few Drops of which inſtantly makes the moſt offenſive Breath ſmell incomparably fine and charming, and a very ſhort time perfectly cures, ſo that a diſagreeable Breath will never return; it certainly makes the blackeſt and moſt foul Teeth extreamly white, clean and beautiful at once uſing, infallibly preſerves them from decaying, and thoſe a little decay'd, from becoming worſe, abſolutely cures the Scurvy in the Gums, tho' never ſo inveterate, cauſing the Fleſh to grow up to the Teeth again, when almoſt eaten quite away, and infallibly faſtens looſe Teeth to Admiration, even in old People, who too often falſly think their Age to be the Occaſion. In a word, for moſt delicately perfuming and quickly curing all ill-ſcented Breath, for immediately making the blackeſt Teeth moſt excellently white, certainly faſtening them when looſe, and effectually preſerving them from rotting or decaying, and aſſuredly curing the Scurvy in the Gums, it has not its equal in the World, as great Numbers of the beſt Quality and Gentry have experienc'd. It is ſold only at Mrs. Osborn's, a Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleet-ſtreet, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, (containing enough to laſt a conſiderable Time) with Directions.

A perfect and ſpeedy Cure for the Scurvy, by one peculiar Specifick Remedy, whoſe Operation is ſafe and pleaſant, cauſing no Sickneſs or Hindrance of Buſineſs. Words can ſcarce expreſs its tranſcendent and quick Effects in eradicating that Diſeaſe, cleanſing and ſweetning the Blood and Humours, and freeing the Body and Skin of Impurities and Defilements, as Scabs, Blotches, Spots, Itchings, &c. and that as well from Surfeits, as the Relicks of Secret Injuries, as from Scurvy; at leaſtwiſe in this ſhort Advertiſement its Virtues are not to be compriſ'd, thereof are at large ſet forth in the printed Directions given with the Medicine, which is ſold by Mr. Spooner, at the Golden half Moon in Lemon-ſtreet, Goodman's Fields, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, and no where elſe in London. N. B.
